

M.A GeographySEMESTER - 1

Paper No	Subject	Contents Of Syllabus
Paper - I	Introduction to Geography - I	Geography: its meaning, Nature and Value Reading as a tool in understanding Geography Indian Culture and Modern Thought
Paper - II	Geography Education and Teaching - I	Aims and Objectives of Teaching Geography Curriculum construction in Geography Correlation of Geography with other subjects Methods of teaching Geography Audio Visual Aids in Teaching Geography
Paper - III	Political Geography - I	Introduction Concept of Nation and State Frontiers and Boundaries
Paper -IV	Population Geography - I	Introduction to Population Geography Geography, Population Change and Development Geography and Fertility
Paper - V	Social Geography - I	Defining Social Geography The Nature of Social Geography Social Geography in the Realm of Social Sciences Social Structure and Social Processes Sociological Models in Geography Growth and development of Social Geography

SEMESTER - 2

Paper No	Subject	Contents Of Syllabus
Paper - I	Introduction to Geography - II	History of Geography Branches of Geography Environmental Geography
Paper - II	Geography Education and Teaching - II	Text book on Geography The Geography teacher Evaluation in teaching Geography Lesson planning in geography Reading the Landscape
Paper - III	Political Geography - II	Concept of Heart Land and Rein Land Federalism Political region of the world Geopolitics

Paper -IV	Population Geography - II	Geography and Mortality Geography and Nuptiality Internal and International Migration World Population growth
Paper - V	Social Geography - II	Patterns of Development Research in Social Geography Interpretive social research to Geography How territory shapes social life Agrarian and Pastoral Modes A model of society